ENGLAND IS IN LINE.

Following Policy of United States in Chinese Affairs.

FRENCH PROPOSALS.

Some Are to the Liking of America, While Others Will Be Turned Down—Investigation Will Delay Policy as to China.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The British government has followed in the footsteps of the United States in the Chinese negotiations. It has authorized Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister to Peking, to enter into relations with Chinese officials just as our government did in the case of Minister Conger. It has left its minister discretionary powers to pass upon the sufficiency of the credentials of Li Hung Chang, Prince Ching and other Chinese envoys.

Although the formal response to the German proposition has not been returned by Lord Salisbury, the United States government has been informed that, though such arrangement has been made, all being necessary in the light of recent developments, yet Sir Claude MacDonald will be instructed to make the same inquiries relative to the punishment of the Chinese ringleaders that have been committed to Mr. Conger.

The first practical outcome of Special Commissioner Rockhill's investigation has been an instruction to him by the state department to cooperate with Mr.
Conger in the inquiries with which that official is now charged, relative to the character of the Chinese envoys and punishments.

The next step toward the final settlement of the Chinese troubles must come from Mr. Conger and his brother ministers at Peking. They are charged now with inquiries into the matter of punishments, which certainly will occupy some time, and it is not expected that much headway will be made in other directions until this phase of the case has passed. The latest French note is a distinct movement toward the initiation of negotiations for a settlement while this question of punishment is still pending.

It is probable that exchanges will take place with the French note as the basis while the ministers at Peking are at work under their instructions upon the subject of punishments but even though some advance is made with the French note, it is not likely in the judgment of officials here that all of the complex questions involved therein can be agreed upon by the powers before Mr. Conger and the other ministers are ready to report upon their branch of the case.

Toussing the French proposals the officials here have already received intimations that the Chinese government is preparing to offer strenuous objections to some of them, notably to the propositions looking to the razing of the Taku forts and the interdiction of the importation of fire arms. It is believed here, however, that the imperial government will make earnest effort to meet the demand of the powers respecting the punishments.

The news that Yung Lu is not to be forced upon the Chinese peace commission is well received here as indicating the readiness of the Chinese government to heed any reasonable remonstrance from the powers.

Boats to Leave the Lakes.

Buffalo, Oct. 6.—Some vessel owners in the great lakes are making preparations for coastwise business on the Atlantic ocean and as soon as lake traffic ceases it is predicted there will be an exodus of boats for the seacoast. It is reported here that there is a demand for boats to carry cargoes of coal south from Newport News and return with copper. The fact that business prospects are not bright on the lakes, while the reverse is reported to be the condition on the Atlantic, is the cause of this peculiar situation. Last winter a fleet of a dozen boats made the venture and met success.

Insane Man Kidnaps a Boy.

Trenton, Me., Oct. 6.—The town of Galt is all agog over the kidnapping of Cad Winters, the 12-year-old son of Joshua Winters, by Lyle Briggs, a deranged man, who had formed an attachment for him. Seventy-five men scoured the country. The boy was found after 24 hours' search, he having escaped from Briggs. He bore a heavy scar on his head, where Briggs had struck him with a revolver because he hung back when he tried to get him to walk with him.
Fifty men with guns are in pursuit of Briggs.

English Elections.

London, Oct. 6.—Up to this time 471 members have been elected to parliament as follows: Conservatives, 271; Unionists, 47; Liberals and Laborites, 89; Nationalists, 64.

LAWYER PATRICK.

Bound Over on the Charge of Forging Millionaire Rice's Name.

New York, Oct. 6.—When Lawyer Patrick and Jones were arraigned in the court yesterday afternoon, Assistant District Attorney Osborn did not file any complaint. Detective Carey submitted an affidavit in which he swore that he believed Patrick and Jones to be guilty of forging, acting as attorney and secretary of Mr. Rice, now deceased, of whose signature they are suspected of having forged to checks by acting in concert.

Patrick and Jones were then arranged and Magistrate Mott held them in $10,- 000 bail each for examination Monday when Magistrate Braun will be the presiding magistrate. Mr. House wanted the bail made $5000 but Mr. Osborn objected, saying the men are suspected of forgery in the second degree, thus indicating that it would be on the complaint of forging the checks that the district attorney was to proceed.

MORE INFORMATION.

A Negro Woman Tells What She Knows
of the Death of Mr. Rice.

New York, Oct. 6.—Information, which may have an important bearing upon the case which will result from the attempt to obtain possession of the millions left by William M. Rice, has come to the police from Marie Scott, of this city, a negro woman, who, for eight months before his death, was employed by Mr. Rice as a caretaker and laundress. She knew the old man and his habits very well.

When seen at her home she said that she had seldom been more shocked than she was when she heard of her employer's death. She knew that he was ill, but had been given to understand that his condition was not such as to alarm his friends.

"I saw Mr. Rice," said she, "the day before he died. I went to his apartments in Madison avenue on Saturday morning as usual to do the housework.
When I arrived there, about 8 o'clock, Mr. Rice was still in bed. He arose shortly afterward and after partaking of a light breakfast he took his bath. When he came out I noticed that his color was exceedingly bad and remarked upon it.

"He also appeared greatly worried about something as he had been the last time I saw him before that, but in answer to my inquiry he said that he was feeling better and he did appear to be in cheerful spirits. I thought a great deal of Mr. Rice because he was good to me, but did not worry much about him, because I did not consider him so ill as he had been made out to be.

"Before I left the apartments that afternoon Dr. Curry arrived and had a long talk with Mr. Rice. I am not sure that the doctor was there when I left.
Mr. Rice was generally alone with Mr.
Jones, who took care of him, and I believe the two were together when I left that afternoon. Mr. Jones seemed to have the entire care of his employer.

"I know Mr. Patrick, though not very well. He was at the house often, but when he came there he and Mr. Rice always went into the library together and at these times they were never disturbed.

"Of course it is impossible for me to know whether any crime was committed.
I certainly am greatly shocked at what has happened. Everybody who knew Mr. Jones around the building liked him and I would hesitate to believe that he was implicated in any crime against his employer."

New Telegraph Line Incorporated.

New York, Oct. 6.—A certificate of incorporation of the Exchange Telegraph company has been filed with the clerk of Hudson county, N. J., and with the secretary of state at Trenton. The authorized capital stock is $5,000,000. The objects of the company are to transmit and sell throughout the United States all kinds of news and operate tickers for the transmission of market reports. The Exchange Telegraph company is an incorporation effected by members of the board of trade of Chicago and other cities to build and operate board of trade lines. The company is organized because of a recent contest between the Postal and Western Union Telegraph companies growing out of quotations of the Chicago board of trade to bucket shops.

Famous Southerner Dead.

Sunnyside, Ga., Oct. 6.—Captain John McIntosh Kell, adjutant general of Georgia, and one of the most noted men in the south, died at his home near this place Friday evening. He had been in bad health for a long time. He was 75 years of age. He served with distinction in the Mexican war. He was later an officer in the Commodore Peary's expedition to Japan. In May, 1861, he reported for duty to Captain Raphael Semmes at New Orleans, where he served on the Sumter. He was with Captain Semmes as executive officer of the Alabama, the famous Confederate battleship. In 1865 he was appointed adjutant general of Georgia, which office he held until his death.

STRIKERS STILL REFUSE.

Will Not Return to Work Though All Mines Offer An Increase.

Many say that the decision of the individual operators to advance wages is the one thing required to bring the strikers and operators together. Other students of the situation say that the strikers have tied the region up so thoroughly that they are now eager to prolong the strike in the hope of getting more concessions out of the operators.
The general opinion here is that it will be wise for the miners to accept what is now offered to them.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 6.—Offer of individual mine owners to increased wages 10 per cent have been posted at more than 60 mines, but none of the striking miners have returned to work.

The time has arrived in the coal strike when it will either end quickly or drag along probably for many months and it is for the strikers to decide which it is to be.

President Mitchell of the First district, which is composed of Luzerne and Lackawanna counties and has 75,000 miners, says that the men would be satisfac-tied with three concessions—an increase of 10 per cent, reduction of the price of powder to $1.50 a keg and pay every two weeks. The big companies have granted all of these except the last. For the pay every two weeks, the strikers can have that if they desire it. It is understood that many companies are willing to pay forthrightly if their employees want it.

Already a number are anxious to return to work, and there have been several applications to the local unions for relief. These appeals for aid will increase rapidly in the next week or two, and will compel the unions to draw on their treasury. President Mitchell is anxious to avoid this if possible and it is a question also, how long the strike fund would last. Most of the strikers can take care of themselves until November 1, but then the union must aid them.
The local lodges have little money and could do practically nothing.

It is the opinion of many who understand the situation that everything points to a speedy settlement, and it is thought that President Mitchell will call a convention of delegates from all the collieries within a few days.

Ready to Adjust Grievances.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 6.—The Delaware and Hudson Coal company has given notice it will make the same wage advance to its employees as other companies, reduce powder $1.50 a keg and adjust all other grievances which the employees may have.

The Pennsylvania Coal company is still holding out.

Striking Miners Close Collieries.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 6.—Nearly 3000 striking miners with 50 women and girls marched into Lattimer and completely tied up two colliers of Calvin, Pardee & Co., located at that place. It was the greatest march that has taken place during the present strike.

Women Attack Miners.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 6.—Eight Italians employed on the night shift of Calvin, Pardee & Co's colliery at Lattimer, were attacked on the public road early this morning by 25 women. One man was slightly injured and all fled.

Damon in Place of Homan.

Dallas, Oct. 6.—The Prohibition party has nominated H. G. Damon of Corsicana, for governor in place of W. K.
Homan of Dallas, who declined the nomination.

ANNOUNCEMENT

By mutual consent the firm of Connelly, Palmer & Carnes, publishers of the Bryan Eagle and Madisonville Meteor, is this day dissolved, J. A. Palmer retiring from the firm and purchasing the entire interest of the firm in the Madisonville Meteor and accounts, and W. P. Connelly and Malcolm Carnes purchasing the one-third interest of J. A. Palmer in the Bryan Eagle and accounts, and forming a new partnership under the firm name of Connelly & Carnes. The publication of the Daily and Weekly Eagle will be continued without interruption or change of policy. The new management desire to thank the public for the liberal patronage accorded the former firm and indulge the hope that it will merit and receive equal favor in the future, at the same time bespeaking for Mr. Palmer that degree of continued success which his excellent paper deserves. The Eagle will continue to strive for the upbuilding of Bryan and Brazos county, being for everything which is good for home and home people, and against everything which is not.

CONNELLY & CARNES.

In severing my connection with the Eagle and assuming full charge of the Meteor I desire to add that the paper will still be at the service of my friends and the public in Bran, and I will be here again shortly to present my claims in person.

Factory smoke and not dust is what we need in the air.

More good roads and bridges next year mean more business.

Indiana democrats gave Bryan a flattering reception.

The hurricane which swept this country early in September gave cooler weather a month set back.

Somebody tried to throw a ten pound chunk of ice on Senator Hanna in Chicago. Bet the senator thinks it was a New York democrat.

With the election approaching very near it may reasonably be expected that the American end of the Chinese question will be fixed up in good shape and the big coal strike settled in a short time, but there is no hope we opine even in administration circles that they will catch Aguinaldo or get loose from the Philippine question.

The Galveston News declares that "it is well known the republican party depends, in a great measure, for its success on the expenditure of money." If there were no other reason this one alone demands that it be swept from power.

FOR MAINLAND SUFFERERS.

Governor Sayers to Turn Over Thirty Thousand Dollars for Sufferers.

Austin, Oct. 6.—Governor Sayers has concluded to turn over $30,000 in cash to Judge Taliaferro, chairman of the relief committee, for the mainland sufferers by the September hurricane. The mainland sufferers have been badly neglected in comparison to what has been done for Galveston. The condition is particularly bad around Alvin and Hitchcock.

A movement has been started by Aaron Coffee, a well known agricultural writer, to have mass meetings held at every county seat in Texas and petition Governor Sayers to use $250,000 of the $2,000,000 surplus in the state treasury to aid the Galveston and coast sufferers generally and to petition the legislature at the session to open next January to indorse this action of the governor, if he takes it.

Gen. T. W. Blake, of Plantersville, father of Hon. Walter Blake, of Sherman, spent Friday night in Bryan as the guest of his old friend, J. F. Parks. Gen. Blake is 79 years old and was traveling on horseback from Sherman to Plantersville. He said that he had rode horseback all over this country fifty years ago, and wanted to travel the same way now, so as not to notice the changes so much. He says that on his way from Sherman here he was alone and never had company more than five miles on the entire trip. He believes if the country changes in the next fifty years as it has the past fifty the farmers can all go to mill on the train.

There will be Sunday school at the Baptist church this morning at the usual hour and the young peoples meeting will be held at 4 o'clock. The later have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Joe McGregor, president; Prof John A. Moore, vice-president; Miss Nellie Batte, secretary; Clarence Boyer, treasurer. There will be no preaching today owing to the illness of Dr. Simms who has been sick the past week. He was able to be up yesterday.

In the suit of Mrs. L. W. Rawls, vs. the Western Union telegraph company in the district court here yesterday the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1000. The suit was for $1999.25.

Parties wanting family washing done will find it to their advantage to bring their clothes to the old creamery. Good work guaranteed at the lowest price possible. B. H. Knowles. 69

TURKISH INDEMNITY.

United States Tired of Waiting for Payment From Turkey.

MAY USE SOME FORCE

The Sultan Will Be Reminded of His Obligation and if Not Sufficient Sterner Measures Will Be Resorted To.

Washington, Oct. 6.—This government is preparing to take very decisive steps with a view to bringing Turkey to a prompt performance of her promises and obligations with respect to the claims of the United States.

The recall of Ali Ferraugh Bey, the Turkish minister, has vastly stimulated interest in the somewhat strained diplomatic relations with the sublime porte, and every step in the negotiations is watched with keen interest, especially now that it is possible for the American fleet to be withdrawn from eastern waters for a possible demonstration in the Mediterranean.

It is learned from a high official source that the administration is of the opinion that no extreme measures will be in dealing with the Sultan, but it is prepared to adopt such measures if the more usual and gentler resources of diplomacy are of no effect.

These harsher measures will be, in the event of the failure of present negotiations, nothing less than an ultimatum which would be presented to the sultan by Minister Oscar S. Strauss.

In speaking of this phase of the situation, the official referred to said:

"Our government will not cease its insistence upon the payment of these claims and has detained Mr. Strauss here pending the conclusion of these negotiations and unless these negotiations are speedily concluded in a way entirely satisfactory to our government and in accordance with the promises made by the sultan, Mr. Strauss will receive very positive instructions which will bring Turkey to the realization that our government expects the sultan to respect his repeated promise."

Under the instructions of Secretary Hay, Minister Strauss returned to this country in February last, in order to confer with his chief and since then the negotiations have been conducted from this end with the active assistance of Mr. Strauss.

It is believed here that but for the interposition of Russia and the demands that were made by Great Britain, Italy and France to have their claims paid when they learned that the United States had taken the lead in these negotiations and succeeded in having the indemnity claims, not only recognized, but had received a promise for payment, the Turkish government would have promptly carried out its promises. The government, however, did not intend to be sidetracked on this question and the result has been that through direct pressure, exerted at Washington, the Turkish government fulfilled its promises for the rebuilding of the destroyed school houses and for the additional building to Robert college, so that all the matters at issue have been satisfactorily settled with the exception of the payment of the indemnity claims.

Two years ago it was believed by high officials of the government that nothing but warlike demonstration could bring about a settlement of the pending questions. The situation has been skillfully and decidedly improved although the administration is growing weary of the dilatory tactics resorted to by the advisers of the sultan.

Howard Hanged at Brenham.

Brenham, Tex., Oct. 6.—King Howard was hanged here at 12:45 o'clock this afternoon. Howard killed his wife and Luke Taylor in a fit of jealousy on March 4, last. Howard was self possessed on the scaffold. He made a short address to those present claiming he was justified in killing his wife and Taylor, but that he forgave everybody and was ready to die. "The sheriff has my body, but God has my soul," were his last audible words.

MANY TALKS MADE.

Bryan Takes for His Text an Old Poster for McKinley on an Old Barn and Makes Some Strong Comparisons Over It.

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 6.—The meeting which closed here at 10 o'clock last night was the last of a series of remarkably large political demonstrations made in connection with the appearance of Hon. W. J. Bryan. He made speeches during the day at Noblesville, Arcadia, Tipton, Elwood, Alexandria, Marion, Hartford City, Muncie, Winchester, Richmond, New Castle and Anderson. A majority of these places are important manufacturing centers and all the communities traversed are considered Republican in politics. They could not however, have given the Democratic candidate a more cordial reception than they extended. There were immense outpourings at all the towns and no interruptions occurred.

Mr. Bryan after the last speech was concluded expressed himself as greatly pleased with the days experiences. The speeches averaged half an hour, though the Anderson speech was much longer. In one or two instances Mr. Bryan refused to go to distant stands because of the difficulty of getting through the crowds and the loss of time.

At Hartford City Mr. Bryan found a text for his remarks in some McKinley posters conspicuously displayed on a dead wall in the distance. Referring to these posters Mr. Bryan said:

"I see on the other side of that barn a bill or a poster and all that I can make out of that here is that McKinley was right. Now, the question I want to ask is, which time was he right? You know, my friends, a man who is on both sides of a question has a great advantage over the man who is only on one side. The man who gets on both sides must be right some time, but when was Mr. McKinley right? When he denounced Grover Cleveland's financial policy, or was he right when he did the same thing that Mr. Cleveland did?"

"Which time was he right in 1896, when he said in his letter of acceptance that we did not need more money or was he right this year in his letter of acceptance when he boasted that we had more money and therefore ought to be glad? Was he right when he said in his letter of 1896 that he would keep in circulation all the silver and paper money then included in the circulation or was he right when he signed the bill to retire the greenback and substitute a national bank note?"

"Was he right when, in his inaugural address he promised to enforce the law against the trusts when he had promised to? Was he right when he pointed out the evils of the trust in his inaugural message or was he right when he appointed an attorney general from New Jersey, the home of the trusts, and allowed him to draw his salary without enforcing the laws intrusted to his keeping?"

"Was he right when he said in 1897 that forcible annexation was criminal aggression and contrary to our code of morality, or was he right when he sent 65,000 soldiers 7000 miles away from home to force annexation upon an unwilling people? Was he right when he said last December that it was our plain duty to give free trade to Puerto Rico or was he right when he asked the members of congress to vote against free trade to Puerto Rico?"

"I want you Republicans to take both arguments made by your president and see which argument you will accept."

TWO BIG CROWDS.

They Welcome Governor Roosevelt at Davenport and Rock Island.

Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 6.—Two immense meetings were addressed by Gov. Roosevelt yesterday, one at Davenport, Ia., and the other here. At Davenport Governor Roosevelt spoke for about half an hour in a tent in the western limits of the city. Immediately upon the conclusion of his remarks at that place he was driven to Rock Island where a great street parade was arranged. People lined the streets on all sides for several miles. Here he spoke for not more than 20 minutes.

Governor Roosevelt since he began his itinerary through the northwestern states has been speaking from 10 to 20 times each day closing the days labors usually with a night meeting. Many of these meetings have been in the open air, requiring extra exertion on his part. He has now been on this journey for more than 30 days, and though strong beyond the powers of most men, he is beginning to show signs of distress and a failing voice. If some relief is not afforded him his physical strength may be unable to stand the strain until the end of the campaign.

Appeal to Gold Democrats.

Indianapolis, Oct. 6.—The executive national (gold) Democratic committee has issued an appeal to the gold Democrats of the United States urging them to stand together on the financial question and oppose Bryan as vigorously as they did in 1896.

SOUTHERN INDUSTRIES.

Various Mills About Ready to Start and Many Nearing Completion.

Baltimore, Oct. 6.—Changing conditions in the southern textile industry, likely to be hastened by recent developments at home and abroad, are illustrated in this week's announcement in the Manufacturers' Record of plans for new undertakings in various states.

By the middle of next month it is expected that the plant of the Williamsburg (Va.) Knitting Mill company will begin operations. The plant includes a main building 125 feet long, two stories high, with a 70x50 foot wing.

Announcement is made for the establishment at Knoxville, Tenn., of another $50,000 knitting mill and of a $40,000 knitting mill at Waycross, Ga.

The plant of the Wadding company at Tuscaloosa, Ala., is to be remodeled, probably for a knitting mill.

The Midland Hosiery company of Lynchburg, Va., has purchased a site for a new building in which additional machinery will be installed.

A company has been organized at Salisbury, Md., to equip a plant for producing half hose, capacity to be 100 dozen pairs daily.

Some weeks ago a factory was established at Atlanta for the production of Smyrna rugs. Already the capacity of the establishment has been doubled and arrangements are completed for greater enlargements.

Successful efforts have been made for the establishment of a $200,000 cotton manufacturing plant at Alexander City, Ala.

It is reported that Gustavus Milhiser of Richmond, Va., has purchased land for a site of a cotton mill at Roanoke Rapids, N. C.

The Unity cotton mills of La Grange, Ga., has let the contract for the erection of its main building. Duck and heavy osnaburg will be the products.

Significant, too, of southern possibilities, is the plan of J. E. Wiley, a negro man of means, to establish at Dallas, Tex., a 2500 spindle mill in which negro labor alone will be employed. About $50,000 will be invested.

J. L. Kelly will build a saw mill and and veneer factory for crates and Windsor, Fla.

A company has been organized to establish a chair factory at Milton, N. C. The Keyser, W. Va., Table works with a capital stock of $500,000 will manufacture tables and other furniture.

Machinery has been ordered for the equipment of a wood pulp mill, with a daily capacity of 15 tons, on the Nockamuc river, near Johnson City, Tenn. Machinery has been bought for a stove factory at Crossville, Tenn.

A mill will be erected to work 400 acres of hardwood at Martin, Fla., for a New York spoke and rim manufacturing company.

A company with a capital stock of $30,000 will be organized at Winona, Miss., to build wagons.

Murphy & Manning of Knoxville, Tenn., will double the capacity of their woodworking factory.

Bottling works, ice factory, canneries, sugar refinery, brick kilns, flour mills and minor industries under construction or planned, show that southern communities are becoming more alert as to their opportunities.

AFTER SOUTHERN COAL.

English Syndicate Contracts for 750,000 Tons of Alabama Coal.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—An accredited representative of an English syndicate has contracted for 750,000 tons of Alabama coal to be delivered at some point on the Gulf of Mexico. The deliveries are to extend over a period of two years. At what point the coal is to be delivered is not stated, but the parties interested are said to own valuable terminals below New Orleans, and it is therefore presumed that this coal will go to New Orleans for shipment.

In an interview the promoters of this coal industry it was stated that the coal from Alabama could be handled at a point below New Orleans at a greater advantage than at Mobile or Pensacola on account of the present carrying trade of the vessels of this export business. It is also claimed that the Alabama coal through this line would be able to compete with export coal from Norfolk and other points on the seaboard. The promoters also claim that in view of the marketing of the coal of the state of Alabama in Europe the coal of this state would have an advantage greater than that of any other coal fields in America for export trade.

Notwithstanding the fact that every furnace in Birmingham in running to its full capacity and that during the past year over $11,000,000 of capital has been invested in the iron and coal regions of this state, yet the home consumption is not sufficient to absorb the product of the coal lands being developed.

Gin Boiler Explodes.

Flaton, Tex., Oct. 6.—The boiler at Wakefield's gin, seven miles from here, exploded Friday killing five children, fatally injuring two men, hurting several more and completely destroying the gin. Wakefield, the owner of the gin, is a prosperous negro, but it is not known whether the killed were white or black.

Cotton Convention Called.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 6.—The executive committee of the Georgia Cotton Growers' Protective association unanimously passed a resolution here calling an interstate convention of southern cotton growers and business men to meet in this city Nov. 20.
